Celebrating Eighty Years of Catholic Education

Vol. 1/Fall 2004

A HISTORY Lesson 1924-2004

The History Channel tells the truth as it discovers it, often surprising and delighting its viewers in the process. Sister Christopher, Kennedy's very own History Channel, has certainly uncovered some amazing details of our own past. The historical foundation of Kennedy Catholic High School, which celebrates its Eightieth anniversary this fall, traces its roots to a building in Katonah known as Scanlon's Folly (the townspeople were very skeptical of the project) and to a convent called the Hawthorne House, formerly a tavern! Back in 1918, Monsignor Scanlon, listening to the needs and desires of a growing Catholic population in the countryside of Westchester County, searched for a building that could serve as a school. He found a site in Katonah. In NYC, he discovered an old Knights of Columbus building with its insignia initials "K of C" engraved on its corner. The structure was moved to Katonah and a foundation was carved for the building. A total of four rooms provided room for classes. To house the Sisters of the Divine Compassion, Father Scanlon purchased the Katonah tavern and annexed it to the building. St. Mary's School was dedicated to honor the memory of two World War I soldiers whose initials coincidentally fit the cornerstone, Corporals Kelly and Candee. The first students filled the four classrooms (two up and two down) in grades one through six in 1921.

Despite the cackling and name calling from local townspeople, St.

Mary's was a huge success. In 1924, the building was expanded to include a high school, the forerunner of today's Kennedy Catholic High School.

Basketball, baseball and softball comprised sports offerings for both boys and girls. To play its biweekly games required extraordinary community "muscle." It was a huge effort. The same school spirit and enthusiasm that was characteristic of St. Mary's in the early days is alive and well at Kennedy Catholic eighty years later, culminating in the Gaels title win at the 2004 NYSPH Federation and State Championships, a first for the school.

There were seven students in the first graduating class of 1928; last year saw 155 students receive their diplomas from KCHS; over the past eighty years, over 10,000 students have graduated from St. Mary's / Kennedy Catholic High school.

Throughout the 1950's, the demand for Catholic education in northern Westchester increased dramatically and the Archdiocese of New York announced plans for a new co-educational high school. After President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, Francis Cardinal Spellman named the new school in his honor. Since the building was not ready, the first graduates of John F. Kennedy High School walked down the aisles of St. Mary's. The transition to the new school and convent in Somers was finally completed in October, 1967.

Intelligent, visionary leadership has always guided St. Mary's/Kennedy Catholic High School, whose reputation for academic excellence has never wavered. Sr. Alice formerly known as Sr. Imelda was the principal who led the school from St. Mary's (1964-1967) to Kennedy Catholic (1967-1972) Sr. Alice was preceded by Sr. Mary Gonzaga (principal from 1951-1957), who recently celebrated her 100th birthday.

Reverend William Boldt was Principal (1972 until 1978), followed by Sister Helen Patricia Halloran (1978-1984). Sister Helen succeeded Sister Alice Conrad (1984-1986)

In 1986, Sr. Christopher, currently chair of Kennedy's math department, was named principal; served in that capacity until 1996. Under her guidance, community service was instituted as a graduation requirement. Monsignor Anthony Marchitelli served as principal from 1996- 2003. He was responsible for bringing back a uniform for the student body and expanding the technology and sports offerings at the school. Father Stephen Norton was named to head the school in 2003 and has several exciting visions for the future of Kennedy Catholic High School. Father Norton has said that if there were one thing he would like to see completed by the time his tenure here at Kennedy Catholic has ended, he would like to see a second gymnasium built as well as an extension to the main offices in the front of the building. The plans for both of these projects have already been created and are posted outside the main office for everyone to view.

Cardinal Egan Celebrates Mass at Kennedy Catholic for 80th Anniversary

Last year, Cardinal Edward Egan called the Rev. Stephen Norton down to his Madison Avenue residence. Fr. Norton would leave later that afternoon as the new principal of Kennedy Catholic High School.

"That was definitely a unique situation," Norton said of his appointment.

No less so was Thursday, Sept. 16, when Fr. Norton and Kennedy were honored to host His Eminence as the school celebrate its 80th anniversary this year.

"This is just a great boost for us as a school," Norton said.

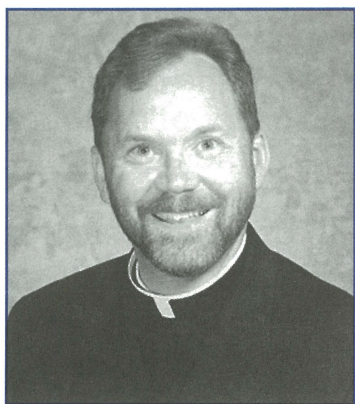

Taking a cue from the Rev. James Teague, Egan described Kennedy as "the best college preparatory school in the nation." In his homily, the Cardinal said his hopes and prayers were for the students to be men and women of justice, compassion, truth and prayer. He noted it would take courage and commitment to become what they want.

"It is only in a place like this that you can have both formations," Egan said, referencing the academic and spiritual education Kennedy Catholic students receive.

During the Mass, Student Council Vice-President Tricia Watson presented the Cardinal, whom she described as very nice and down to earth, with a blanket listing a number of the school's extracurricular activities, along with the Kennedy "K" pin. Following a quick tour in which Egan visited and spoke to several classes, the Cardinal lent his signature to the picture of himself that hangs in the Main Office.

Although brief, the significance of Egan's visit was not lost on the students.

"I was very honored," Secretary Adam Rodriguez said. "It's a big deal for the Cardinal to come and visit your school."

HEADMASTER'S Address

The doors swing open wide on the 80th year for Kennedy Catholic High School and I am overjoyed to part of this vibrant, growing school. We began our anniversary celebration with a visit from His Eminence Cardinal Egan who offered Mass for the students and faculty. The Mass of the Holy Spirit invoked the blessings of Almighty God upon the new academic year, asking Him for continued guidance through the next 80 years.

It was a surprise for me last year, after serving only two years at St. John's Parish in Mahopac, to be appointed the principal of KCHS, but I am overjoyed to be back involved in the work of education. After growing up in Boston, MA, I attended Iona College and subsequently joined the Congregation of Christian Brothers. For over 16 years I taught on both the elementary and secondary level here in New York. I received my Master's Degree in Education from Boston College before entering St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, N.Y. and was ordained in May of 2001. On the day I was ordained a priest, I was called to serve the Church. I believe I am fulfilling that call by serving the students and alumni/alumnae of St. Mary/ Kennedy Catholic High School in every way possible.

I want to extend the reach of our Alumni Office and this is why I have asked Jacob Bergmeier, an outstanding teacher, to also take on the role of assisting Sr. Christopher in this effort. In addition, Kennedy Catholic is very fortunate to have Anthony Casella become our Director of Development. Both gentlemen will work hard to increase our contact with you, our beloved alumni/alumnae.

Our campus is looking wonderful with the landscaping crew attending to the grounds every week and so, with this in mind, please remember that you are always welcome to come "home" to visit Saint Mary's/ Kennedy Catholic High School. Please come anytime to see what our present students are doing, to see the beautification of the campus or to ask questions about future plans for the school. Stop in for Mass in the chapel at 7:45 any morning. We would love to see you!

Please know that we remember all of our alum, both living and deceased, at Mass each month. I ask you to continue to remember all of us in your prayers. May our Lord Jesus Christ and His Holy Mother Mary be with all of you.

Fr. Stephen P. Norton

SPOTLIGHT On

Sister Mary Christopher

“What news of Sister Christopher?” is a question often asked of current parents and students when the Kennedy Catholic name comes up. While there have been many important educators and administrators throughout Saint Mary / Kennedy Catholic’s history, Sr. Christopher has been a stalwart in the halls of Kennedy Catholic for 42 years and counting! Sister holds degrees and advanced degrees from Good Counsel College, Manhattan College, Iona College, Fordham University, Catholic University of American and Fairfield University. She brings a plethora of knowledge to her many positions at Kennedy Catholic, all with grace and serenity and a wonderful sense of humor. During her years with us, Sister Christopher has introduced computer programs at Kennedy Catholic while serving as the Department Chairperson and Director of Alumni. It was her initiative to create the Student Community Service Program as a requirement for all Kennedy Catholic men and women; Sister also began the Emmaus Retreat Program, an important experience for junior class members.

Last year Sr. Christopher celebrated her 60th year jubilee as a member of the Religious of the Divine Compassion and she is still going strong today. God bless her! A short look at Sister Christopher’s early professional career is as follows:

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Elementary School, Elmsford, NY
Second Grade Teacher (1944-1948)

Preston High School, Bronx, NY
Teacher of Mathematics (1944-1952)

St. Mary’s High School, Katonah, NY
Teacher of Mathematics, Physics and Religion (1952-1966)
Assistant Principal (1963-1966)
Acted as Librarian, taught Girls’ Gym and coached Girls’ Basketball

Kennedy Catholic High School, Somers, NY
Mathematics Teacher: Math 9 thru Calculus (1966-present)
Math Chairperson (1963-1966) (present)
Administrative Assistant for Academics (1975-1986)
Principal (1986-1996)
Coordinator of Scheduling and Grade Reporting.

BUILDING our future

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.

Development Office

One of the key aspects of sound construction is to build a solid foundation at the onset. Headmaster Fr. Stephen Norton, in implementing his vision for Kennedy Catholic, established the Development Office in August, 2004. Headed by Mr. Anthony Casella, a fundraiser in the educational/nonprofit sector for the past seven years, this office will serve as the conduit to facilitate the reconnection of St. Mary's and Kennedy Catholic graduates with their alma mater.

Among his ambitious plans, Casella announced that there will be a host of events scheduled in the coming year to celebrate the 80th anniversary of St. Mary's and Kennedy Catholic's existence. Some highlights to watch for include reunions for all classes ending in 5s and 0s, the inaugural golf outing in October and other annual events such as a dinner dance in March, and the popular November goods and services auction and more.

Harris Publishing will be working closely with the Development Office to put together a directory that will serve as a resource for Kennedy and its alumni. Watch your mailbox for future mailings that will bring you up-to-date on news of the St. Mary/Kennedy

Catholic family!

Alumni Office

A new addition to the Office of Alumni Affairs is Mr. Jacob Bergmeier, Kennedy's Assistant Director of Alumni Relations. Jacob joined Kennedy Catholic in March of 2003 as a freshman Spanish teacher; he also coaches all of the running sports at Kennedy Catholic, including cross country, indoor and outdoor track.

Sr. Christopher, RDC, Director of Alumni Relations, is excited to see both the office and the school grow in this area. Jacob's focus will be on cultivating young alumni involvement, assisting with the reunions as well as other aspects of alumni participation.

Computers

Computer technology has transcended the realm of luxury to necessity within the past decade. Its advances are essential to the fundamentals of education. Kennedy Catholic is taking steps to help enrich the lives of our students, faculty and administrators by wiring the school for a network. All classrooms, computer labs, library, guidance and administrative offices are connected through a server to enhance the communications within the school's infrastructure and open the door for many more technological advances in the years to come. A Web and email server has also been put in place to augment communication between the school, current parents, and alumni.

This summer, IBM employees, all of whom are either Kennedy Catholic alumni, or current and/or alumni parents, generously donated 20 brand new IBM computers to the school because of the yeoman efforts of Warren Lucas '72. Warren assessed the needs of the school and contacted fellow co-workers who he knew had an affiliation with Kennedy Catholic. A huge "thank you" goes to Warren and the other members of the Kennedy Catholic community (listed below) who helped bring to fruition this exciting upgrade to KCHS technology!

A special thank you goes to our IBM parents and alumni that donated to our computer program:

Robert Purtell
Nancy Flynn
John Boutross '78
Carol Overby
Dan Prunty '73

Lu Ahnemann '72
Bob Guidotti
Barbara Schwartzwelder

GOING, going, gone!

The 23rd Annual Kennedy Catholic Goods and Services Auction

The Goods and Services Auction has become a hallmark of Kennedy Catholic fundraising. This year's auction will be held on Saturday, November 6, 2004. The doors open to this spectacular event at 6:45 p.m.

The Goods and Services Auction by tradition is the major annual fundraising event for Kennedy Catholic; the proceeds go directly to offsetting the cost of school operations and enable us to keep tuition increases to a minimum.

The Goods and Services Auction is an exciting, fun-filled event under the superb and loving direction of Sr. Barbara. Parents, students, alumni, faculty, and friends all join the effort. It is because of their hard work and involvement that the Kennedy Catholic Auction is one of the largest and most successful in the area.

The $10 admission price includes complimentary food and beverages (beer, wine and soda), desserts and coffee, all to enjoy while you meander through the building to "shop" tables upon tables laden with quality items ranging from the practical to the whimsical. Place a bid in the Silent Auction during the first part of the evening from 7 – 8 p.m. Then move on to the second, very exciting portion when professional auctioneer Ron Gantz returns to the block to sell dozens and dozens of fine items including sports tickets and memorabilia, vacation packages, show tickets, luxurious Oriental carpets and other home furnishings, along with some great surprises. It is a first-class event and there is something for everyone! Preparations are well underway to make this another profitable and exciting event for our students and our school. Mark your calendar and join us. As alumnae, you are always welcome. It's a great opportunity for you to reminisce while having an enjoyable night out.

For more information on this event, please contact the development office 914 232-5061 ext (134).

ATHLETICS AT KENNEDY Catholic High School

In 1924 when the doors of St. Mary's first opened, two sports were offered for both boys and girls: basketball and baseball (softball for the girls). Today in 2004, KCHS boasts fifty athletic teams, covering 17 different sports with more than five hundred student participants. A full complement of athletic programs are offered for student athletes including cross country, field hockey, volleyball, cheerleading, ice hockey, football, lacrosse, tennis, swimming, golf, soccer, baseball, softball, track and field, indoor track and field, bowling, and of course, basketball.

Athletic Director Patty Maurer has dedicated over 30 years to supervising the sports and physical education program at Kennedy Catholic. She is excited about the future of sports at the school. "The athletic program at Kennedy Catholic has improved greatly these past few years for a number of reasons. First, the support from the administration has enabled us to receive the financial support necessary to add new and exciting teams. Second, our coaches are very dedicated to their profession and often spend countless hours of unpaid time working with their athletes in and out of seasons. Lastly, we could not improve without the backing of our athletes' parents." Parents have been the backbone of support for Kennedy Catholic athletics. Tirelessly, they have been the fundraisers, the chauffeurs, and the cheerleaders for their sons and daughters."

Patty Maurer added, "Students at Kennedy Catholic know the importance of training in and out of season. This past year we witnessed the success of our program due in part to this philosophy. With the help of Mr. Pete McGowan, our student-athletes have made great strides. As Kennedy Catholic's very own fitness guru, Pete has become a very important member of our coaching staff, taking on the responsibility as one of the very successful baseball coaches and a mentor to students on the importance of a total fitness and diet program."

THREE GENERATIONS

The athletic department is supported by over 50 part-time coaches, all of whom dedicate their time and efforts to making many of the Kennedy's team's champions at both sectional and state levels. One of Kennedy's proudest moments came just last year when the boys' basketball team became the New York State 2004 Class B and Federation Champions. [See the accompanying spotlight story for more details on this outstanding achievement.]

Many other sports milestones have been achieved including many league championships and team sportsmanship awards. Fourteen of Kennedy's twenty-five varsity programs have competed in sectional competitions. The Gael gym is festooned with numerous championship banners attesting to Kennedy Catholic athletic prowess over the years!

Headmaster Fr. Stephen Norton, feels strongly that athletics is important to the overall healthy development of young men and women. "At the end of the academic day here at Kennedy Catholic, the school's atmosphere is charged with an exciting 'buzz' as players gear up to hit the field or court for practice or games." Fr. Norton hopes to improve the facilities in the future, saying, "Since most of our students are involved with one or more sports, the upgrade of the fields as well as hopes for a second gym will enhance the students' athletic pursuits."

2004 is an exciting time for sports at Kennedy Catholic. We've come a long way these past eighty years.

KENNEDY BOYS Varsity Basketball

New York Federation Champions 2003-2004

For the first time in the history of St. Mary's/Kennedy Catholic High School, one of our teams became New York State Champions. The Gaels, owning a 25 -2 record breaking season, were crowned NYS Class B and Federation Champions over the course of two exciting weekends in March, 2004 at the Glens Falls Civic Center. Their final victory rout (81-61) over public high school champion McKinney of Brooklyn brought the crowning glory to the KCHS program that has only grown stronger over the years.

A tremendous debt of appreciation goes to Tom Nelligan, entering his tenth season as head coach, assistant coach Al Morales and team manager, Jamie DeStefano. The winning teammates were: Devin Brown 12, Pete

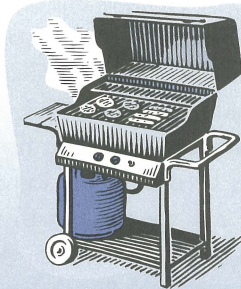

2003-2004 Gaels

Courtney 15 (named MVP in both Class and Federation action), Mike DeStefano 20, Dan Gumb 30, Matt Maher 14, Rob McLaughlin 23, Dan O'Connell 10, Pat O'Gara 32, Greg Robstad 22, Tyrell Thompson 21, Tyler Tripodi 11, Mick Warncke 33, Joe Weldon 41, and John Zanzarella 3. Congratulations to all; you made the entire Kennedy Catholic community so very proud!

In recognition of this outstanding achievement, Bill Gumb, father of Michael '01, Dan '04 and Matthew '08, generously donated the handsome sign prominently erected at our front gates. It proclaims to all those entering or passing by that Kennedy basketball flourishes. "We are the champions!"

Alumni BBQ and Family Day!

Please Come!

Come celebrate Homecoming with Kennedy Catholic alumni and students as they play Woodland High School. Festivities begin at 11:00 a.m. and continue until 3:00 p.m. $20 per person ($50 per family), please contact Development Office, ext. 134 if you are interested.

WHAT'S KENNEDY CATHOLIC GOT TO DO with the Yankees?

For the past few years, the Kennedy Catholic community has participated in a unique fundraising partnership with the Yankees baseball organization in da Bronx. When representatives from our school staff a merchandise or food/beverage booth during home games, Kennedy Catholic stands to earn a nice percentage of the day's sales. Workers benefit from a hefty discount on all Yankee souvenirs and, if they're lucky, a chance to see some of the game!

With the October playoffs already here and a spot in the World Series in the offing, the Kennedy team needs to recruit more interested parents, alumni and students (must be 18 years of age and over) to increase our profits. We stand to earn 10% of souvenir sales and 6% of food and beer sales if we have enough people available on the following dates: October 5 & 6 and October 23 & 24 (assuming Yanks make it that far).

Security clearance is a must; you will need to provide a copy of your social security card and driver's license. Contact Maureen McSweeney, our team leader at once if you want to join the effort (845) 528-2258. If not this season, get your credentials set for next year. The more the merrier, and the more we earn Yankee bucks for Kennedy Catholic!

GIFT IDEA FOR KENNEDY CATHOLIC FANS!

What's warm and cozy and has Kennedy Catholic activities written all over it? Here's a unique Kennedy Catholic souvenir - perfect for sports fans and couch potatoes alike! Wrap yourself in this 100% acrylic, machine-washable 4' x 6' red, white and blue blanket woven with sports motifs and your alma mater's name in the center. All proceeds support our athletic program.

These handy throws are available in the school bookstore for $40.00 and can be shipped anywhere for an extra $7.00. Authentic Kennedy Catholic sweatshirts ($30) are also available from the bookstore for you holiday shoppers! Contact Jacob Bergmeier (ext. 118) in the Alumni Office if you need assistance with an order.

ALL SOULS' REMEMBRANCE AND ALL SAINTS' DAY MASS AND RECEPTION FOR OUR ALUMNI

During the month of November, Frs. Norton and Teague will celebrate every 7:45 a.m. mass in the school chapel for the repose of the souls of our deceased alumni, family and friends, their names placed upon the altar.

On November 1 at 8:30 a.m., please be our honored guests at the community All Saints' Day Mass in the school auditorium. Join us for a light reception of refreshments afterward.

We invite you to call the school alumni office – (914) 232-5061 ext. 118 – with the names of your loved ones and/or to RSVP if you will be attending the Mass on November 1st. We sincerely hope you join us and assure you of our constant prayers!
